

Welcome the Wretched: In Defense of the "Criminal Alien"

Wednesday, March 6, 2024

5:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. (Eastern time)

Rutgers Law School (Newark, Room 122) and Zoom webinar

This program features César Cuauhtémoc García Hernández, the Gregory H. Williams Chair in Civil Rights and Civil Liberties at Ohio State University Moritz College of Law. García Hernández will talk about his recently published book Welcome the Wretched: In Defense of the "Criminal Alien." He counters the fundamental assumption that criminal activity has a rightful place in immigration matters, arguing that instead of using the criminal legal system to identify people to deport, the United States should place a reimagined sense of citizenship and solidarity at the center of immigration policy.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey (418) and Pennsylvania (824) continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must attend, complete an attendance form and evaluation, and have paid the applicable CLE fee.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.2 hours of total CLE credit.

NY CLE Information: This program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction Policy. This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for maximum of 1.0 credit hours, of which 1.0 can be applied toward the areas of professional practice requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit (no partial credit allowed).

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.0 hours of substantive law, practice, and procedure CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting: For Zoom attendees, during the program, codes will be announced at random intervals. Keep track of these codes, which you will need to confirm your attendance. A link to an attendance and evaluation form will be provided at the end of a webinar or upon request by email.

For in-person attendees, you will sign in upon arrival and receive an attendance form and evaluation. Upon departure, you will certify your attendance for the entire program and hand in the completed form.

If you fulfill all our CLE requirements, Rutgers Law School will issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York and submit attendance for Pennsylvania attorneys within 30 days of the program.

CLE Materials: Thorough, high-quality, and carefully written materials shall be distributed to all attendees electronically before or at the program.

Format: Zoom webinar, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program) or faculty in room with participants.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $5 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. When possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver, or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
