Wednesday, May 22, 2024

5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. (Eastern time)

Rutgers Law School, Baker Trial Courtroom, 123 Washington Street, Newark, NJ 07102 and Zoom Webinar

The essence of Democracy is an informed electorate. This timely program is about the important role of the New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission (ELEC) to ensure the integrity of the financial aspects of the State's electoral process. ELEC monitors the campaign financing of all public elections in the State, whether the election is for school board, fire district, municipality, county, mayor, member of the legislature, or governor. Learn about the ELEC, state election laws, compliance, enforcement, penalties, and how to avoid and defend common violations.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey (418) and Pennsylvania (824) continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must attend, complete an attendance form and evaluation, and have paid the applicable CLE fee.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.6 hours of total CLE credit.

NY CLE Information: This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 1.5 credit hours (based on a 50-minute hour), of which 1.5 credit hours can be applied toward the areas of professional practice requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit.

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.0 hours of substantive law, practice and procedure CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting: For Zoom attendees, during the program codes will be announced at random intervals. Keep track of these codes, which will be used to confirm your attendance. A link to an attendance and evaluation form will be provided at the end of the webinar or upon request by email.

In-person attendees will sign in upon arrival and receive an attendance form and evaluation. Upon departure, they will certify your attendance for the entire program, or segments, and hand in the completed form.

Rutgers Law School will email applicable certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York attorneys and submit attendance for Pennsylvania attorneys within 30 days of the program.

CLE Materials: Thorough, high-quality, and carefully written materials shall be distributed to all attendees electronically before or at the program.

Format: Zoom webinar, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program) and faculty in room with participants.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $5 administrative fee. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. You may opt to receive credit for the full amount paid and apply it toward another program within a year. Substitutions are accepted.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. If possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
