

Representing People Who Use Drugs, and Domestic Violence Victims: Law, Ethics, and Challenges

Saturday, May 18, 2024 | 2:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. (Eastern time)

Rutgers Law School, 123 Washington Street, Newark, NJ and 217 N. Fifth Street, Camden, NJ and Zoom Webinar

This program discusses how to represent victims of domestic violence; special issues that arise when representing unhoused people who use drugs; and ethical concerns that may arise with those representations. The speakers will share their experiences and lessons learned as the managing attorney and fellows of Rutgers Law Associates. This hybrid event will be in person at Rutgers Law School in both Camden and Newark, as well as a Zoom webinar.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey (418) and Pennsylvania (824) continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must attend, complete an attendance form and evaluation, and have paid the applicable CLE fee.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 3.0 hours of total CLE credit. Of those, 1.2 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism and 1.8 qualify as hours of credit for new admitted attorneys for criminal/civil trial preparation.

NY CLE Information: This transitional and non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 3.0 credit hours, of which 2.0 credit hours can be applied toward the Skills requirement, and 1.0 can be applied toward the ethics and Professionalism requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit (no partial credit allowed).

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.5 hours of substantive law, practice, and procedure CLE credit, and 1.0 hours of ethics, professionalism or substance abuse CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting: In-person attendees will sign in upon arrival and receive an attendance form and evaluation. Upon departure, they will certify their attendance and hand in the completed form.

Zoom attendees must keep track of CLE codes announced at random intervals, which are required to complete the attendance and evaluation form provided at the end of the program or upon request.

Rutgers Law School will email applicable certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York attorneys and submit attendance for Pennsylvania attorneys within 30 days of the program.

CLE Materials: Thorough, high-quality, and carefully written materials shall be distributed to all attendees electronically before or at the program.

Format: Faculty in room with participants, or Zoom webinar, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $10 administrative fee, or a full credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. If possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
