

Trauma-Informed Lawyering

Wednesday, July 17, 2024 | 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. (Eastern time)

Rutgers Law School – Camden and Zoom Webinar

A discussion of the causes and impacts of childhood and adult trauma, how trauma might impact our client representations, and the techniques and approaches that can enable us as lawyers to more effectively represent clients who have experienced trauma. The program will also discuss how our own trauma, and vicarious trauma, can impact our lawyering and how to address the potential for vicarious trauma and burn-out in a healthy way. Finally, the program will discuss how trauma might implicate the Rules of Professional Conduct.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey (418) and Pennsylvania (824) continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must attend, complete an attendance form and evaluation, and have paid the applicable CLE fee.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 2.4 hours of total CLE credit.

NY CLE Information: This program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction Policy. This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 2.0 credit hours (based on a 50-minute hour).

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 2.0 CLE credit hours (based on a 60-minute hour).

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting: For Zoom attendees, during the program codes will be announced at random intervals. Keep track of these codes, which will be used to confirm your attendance. A link to an attendance and evaluation form will be provided at the end of the webinar or upon request by email.

In-person attendees will sign in upon arrival and receive an attendance form and evaluation. Upon departure, they will certify your attendance for the entire program, or segments, and hand in the completed form.

Rutgers Law School will email applicable certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York attorneys and submit attendance for Pennsylvania attorneys within 30 days of the program.

CLE Materials: Thorough, high-quality, and carefully written materials shall be distributed to all attendees electronically before or at the program.

Format: Zoom webinar, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program) or faculty in room with participants.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $10 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu before the program.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. If possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
