

14th Annual ETHICS-Fest: Analyzing Common Ethical Dilemmas

Friday, December 20, 2024 | 9:00 a.m. – 11:10 a.m.

Zoom Webinar

Close out the CLE year with this lively, fast-paced ethics program in which participants discuss common, but challenging, ethical dilemmas faced by attorneys. Hypotheticals modeled on common practice situations will provide the structure for this highly interactive program for seasoned and new attorneys alike.

What did your colleagues say about the 13th Annual ETHICS-Fest?

- Best in the biz.
- Interesting discussion on new technology!
- This was a great program. Andrew Rossner was a great presenter.
- Thank you for another great year of Ethics. Appreciate the current topics like AI.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey (418) and Pennsylvania (824) continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must attend, complete an attendance form and evaluation, and have paid the applicable CLE fee.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 2.5 hours of total CLE credit. Of those, 2.5 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

NY CLE Information: This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 2.5 credit hours, of which 1.5 can be applied toward the Ethics and Professionalism requirement and 1.0 can be applied toward the Cybersecurity, Privacy and Data Protection-Ethics requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit (no partial credit allowed).

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 2.5 hours of ethics, professionalism, or substance abuse CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting: During the program, several codes will be announced at random intervals. Keep track of these codes, which you will need to confirm your attendance. A link to an attendance and evaluation form will be provided at the end of the webinar or upon request by email.

Rutgers Law School will email applicable certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York attorneys and submit attendance for Pennsylvania attorneys within 30 days of the program.

CLE Materials: Thorough, high-quality, and carefully written materials shall be distributed to all attendees electronically before or at the program.

Format: Zoom meeting, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission (webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).

Accessibility: We strive to make our programs accessible to all registrants. Contact us should you have an accessibility need. If you encounter any issues while attending our events, please contact us at ipe@law.rutgers.edu or at 973-353-5928 to request assistance.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $6 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu before the program.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. If possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
