

U.S. and New Jersey Supreme Court Trends in Criminal Practice

Wednesday, November 20, 2024 | 6:00 p.m. – 7:15 p.m. (Eastern time)

Zoom Meeting

A distinguished panel of practitioners will provide in-depth analysis of recent U.S. Supreme Court and New Jersey Supreme Court decisions that have significant implications for criminal practice. These decisions touch on critical matters including constitutional rights, statutory interpretation, criminal sentencing, and other related issues. The panel will examine key cases, interpret their effects on legal precedent, and discuss practical considerations for defense attorneys, prosecutors, and judges navigating the shifting legal terrain.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey (418) and Pennsylvania (824) continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must attend, complete an attendance form and evaluation, and have paid the applicable CLE fee.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.5 hours of total CLE credit.

NY CLE Information: This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 1.5 credit hours, of which 1.5 credit hours can be applied toward the Areas of Professional Practice requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit (no partial credit allowed).

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.0 hours of substantive law, practice, and procedure CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Format: Zoom meeting. Alternative verifiable learning format. Fully interactive, simultaneous, synchronous transmission. Questions allowed during program.

Attendance Reporting: Attendees must keep track of CLE codes shared at random intervals, which are needed to complete the attendance and evaluation form provided at the end of the program or upon request to ipe@law.rutgers.edu. Attendees must submit the form for CLE credit.

Rutgers Law School will email certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York attorneys and submit attendance for Pennsylvania attorneys within 30 days of the program, if the CLE requirements have been met.

CLE Materials: Thorough, high-quality, and carefully written materials shall be distributed to all attendees electronically before or at the program.

Accessibility: We strive to make our programs accessible to all registrants. Contact us should you have an accessibility need. If you encounter any issues while attending our events, please contact us at ipe@law.rutgers.edu or at 973-353-5928 to request assistance.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $5 administrative fee, or full credit toward another program within a year of the program date. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. If possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
