Artificial Intelligence in Business Law: A Look Ahead

Friday, April 11, 2025 | 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Rutgers Law School | 217 North Fifth Street | Camden, NJ 08102
Faculty Lounge – E403

The Rutgers Business Law Review symposium will be exploring the intersection of artificial intelligence (AI) and business law. As AI technologies continue to reshape industries, businesses, and legal practices, understanding the evolving regulatory landscape is crucial. This event brings together legal professionals to discuss the challenges and opportunities posed by AI in the realm of business law. Topics include the legal and ethical implications of AI-driven automation and decision-making in business operations and data privacy, intellectual property, and safeguarding rights in an AI-powered world.
