HOT TOPICS IN CYBER CRIME

Wednesday, May 14, 2014 | 5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Rutgers School of Law–Newark

S. I. Newhouse Center for Law and Justice | 123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

Open to all members of the bar.

This program will explore the rapidly developing area of cyber crime, including key challenges, recent cases and the current legal and regulatory landscape. Topics include:

- how to prepare for and present a cyber-related case in court, including evidence issues and discussions of where and what evidence may be available in the “Cloud” and on the internet
- international challenges of investigating and prosecuting this cross-border crime
- benefits and barriers to public-private sector information sharing and coordination

Speakers:

Judith Germano, founding member of GermanoLawLLC

Germano advises companies and individuals regarding cybersecurity, data privacy, white-collar criminal matters and government/regulatory issues. She also is a Senior Fellow at NYU School of Law, specializing in cybersecurity, and is the former Chief of Economic Crimes at the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the District of New Jersey.

Erez Liebermann, Vice President and Senior Counsel at Prudential Financial

Liebermann leads the Corporate Investigations Division, responsible for all investigations relating to internal and external fraud, regulatory matters, employee misconduct and sales practices, as well as cybercrimes, privacy breaches, intellectual property theft and computer forensics. He is an adjunct at Rutgers Law School and the former Deputy Chief of the Criminal Division at the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the District of New Jersey.

CLE Credits: 2.4 NJ | 2.0 NY | 2.0 PA
