THE BASICS OF CONSUMER DEBT DEFENSE

Monday, December 8, 2014
2:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Rutgers School of Law-Newark
S.I. Newhouse Center for Law and Justice | 123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

This program will focus on consumer debt defense in New Jersey, including an overview of common debt collection practices and the debt buyer system. The program, specifically geared towards attorneys who do not normally do this type of work, will focus on the basics of defending debt collection cases in New Jersey's Special Civil Part.

Topics will include:

- Vacating default judgments
- Drafting motions
- Timelines and court processes
- Post-judgment relief
- Client interviews
- Preparing clients for trial

Speakers:

Jessica Kitson, Esq.
