

BRIDGE THE GAP: ESSENTIALS OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Friday, April 24, 2015 | 9:00 a.m. - 1:15 p.m.

Rutgers School of Law-Camden
217 N. Fifth Street | Camden, NJ 08102

This program focuses on key issues of ethics, professionalism, and trust and business accounting that are essential for all new attorneys and, indeed, all attorneys admitted to practice law. Topics include:

- ethical issues and best practice issues in forming the attorney-client relationship;
- evaluating and addressing conflicts;
- handling communications with clients, opposing counsel, the courts and third parties;
- handling client funds;
- handling client files and confidential information;
- the disciplinary process and sanctions; and available resources for attorneys.

Though the program follows the curriculum and utilizes an instructional video set forth by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court for the PA Bridge the Gap requirement, it also covers New Jersey practice and divergences between the New Jersey and Pennsylvania rules.

Participants will have the opportunity to engage in a lively discussion of ethical hypotheticals to illustrate the relevant and practical application of the rules in the daily practice of law.

Faculty: Andrew L. Rossner, Esq., Associate Dean for Professional and Skills Education, Director of the Institute for Professional Education, and past president of the C. Willard Heckel Inn of Court at Rutgers School of Law–Newark. He was founding director of the New Jersey Attorney General's Advocacy Institute, served as Deputy Director of the NJ Division of Criminal Justice, Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey, and a Trial Attorney in the U.S. Department of Justice.
