

Civil Mediation 3-Day Training

May 13, 14 & 15, 2015
9:00 am – 4:30 pm

Rutgers School of Law - Camden
217 North 5th Street | Camden, NJ 08102

This highly interactive basic civil mediation training provides a firm foundation in the communication, negotiation, and mediation skills necessary to becoming an effective mediator and satisfies the 20 hour program requirement for the N.J. Superior Court mediation roster. Taught by a veteran mediator and trainer, participants will engage in realistic role plays and skill building exercises designed to hone existing skills and cultivate new techniques effective in assisting parties move towards resolution.

Particular emphasis is given to effective case management and mediator standards. This training meets NJ Superior Court training requirements for application to its roster of civil mediators.

Topics covered include:

- Dissecting conflict
- Communication skill building
- Negotiation basics and role play
- Mediation process overview and role play
- Role play contrasting negotiation and mediation
- Conflict management style analysis
- Mediation principles and practices
- Overview of SC CDR Committee and Advisory Committee on Mediator Ethics
- Integrating mediator standards and ethics
- Overview of requirements and mechanics of Civil Roster Mediation Program
- Mediator ethics overview
- Case management basics and challenges

Faculty:

Kathleen Gaskill, Manager, Complementary Dispute Resolution (CDR) Programs, Administrative Office of the Courts, Programs & Procedures Unit, Trial Court Services, New Jersey

Caroline Petrilla, Esq., Formerly of the State Office of Dispute Settlement and a member of the Rutgers School of Law-Camden adjunct faculty

Who should attend: This training meets NJ Superior Court training requirements for application to its roster of civil mediators. Roster candidates must meet all court requirements for civil roster membership.

CLE credit: 25.2 hrs. NJ includes 1.2 ethics

25 hrs. NY | 21 hrs. PA includes 1.0 ethics

Registration Fee: $500

Register now: www.rutgerscle.com