

CASE INFORMATION STATEMENTS: THE DOS AND DON'TS

Tuesday, October 20, 2015

5:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Rutgers Law School

Center for Law and Justice | 123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

This program will provide you with tools and insights you need to prepare a key aspect of family law matters, the Case Information Statement (CIS). A thorough, properly prepared CIS versus a poorly prepared CIS can impact the outcome of your family law case. Attendees will have the benefit of hearing the judicial perspective on how a CIS is reviewed, analyzed and utilized in cases before them, and an experienced family law attorney's perspective on maximizing the effectiveness and value of this document for a client. Topics include:

- How to avoid common mistakes
- How to address the spouse with limited knowledge of family expenses
- Ethical issues
- Examples of well-prepared and poorly-prepared documents
