

5th Annual ETHICS-fest: Analyzing Common Ethical Dilemmas

Andrew L. Rossner, Esq.

Associate Dean for Professional and Skills Education
Practice Professor of Law
Director of Rutgers Institute for Professional Education
Rutgers Law School

Wednesday, December 16, 2015 | 9:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

Rutgers Law School

Center for Law and Justice | 123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

Close out the CLE year with this lively, fast-paced ethics program in which participants discuss common, but challenging, ethical dilemmas faced by attorneys. A series of vignettes and video clips modeled on common practice situations will provide the structure for this highly interactive program for seasoned and new attorneys alike.

What did your colleagues say about the 4th Annual ETHICS-Fest?

- The speaker is clearly very knowledgeable and is a dynamic and engaging presenter. The format of using real-life examples made the topic more interesting and the information more practical and useful. Excellent course.
- Very informative and engaging. One of the best CLE seminars I have attended and would highly recommend it to my colleagues.
- Dean Rossner is a great speaker. He politely but insistently worked through the hypos to provide concrete, substantial information on thorny problems, and kept the class (and me) engaged to boot.
