

Bringing and Defending Product and General Liability Cases: Practice and Strategy

Wednesday, November 11, 2015 | 9:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Rutgers Law School | 217 North 5th Street | Camden, NJ 08102

This program will provide best practices strategies for bringing and litigating the catastrophic injury case from both the plaintiff and defense perspectives. Seasoned litigators will explore these issues in context through a baseball line drive fact pattern. From the pleadings through trial, the panel will discuss winning strategies from the viewpoint of a plaintiff, sports product manufacturer and organizing league, including:

- Pleadings – crafting successful pleading
- Written Discovery – key issues in conducting discovery
- Fact depositions – strategies for conducting effective depositions
- Corporate designee depositions – practice and pitfalls
- Expert depositions – strategies and practice
- Dispositive motion practice -
- Opening, experts cross exam and closing arguments at trial – effective strategies for presenting and arguing your case and for handling adverse expert testimony
