

THIRD ANNUAL
CONFERENCE ON YOUTH DEVELOPMENT AND JUVENILE JUSTICE

Friday, June 8, 2018
9:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Rutgers University–Newark | Center for Law and Justice | 123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

This conference will explore the current state of the juvenile justice system, race bias and disparities, alternatives to incarceration, and strategies to disrupt the school-to-prison pipeline. Speakers include noted leaders and experts in legal, political, media, and social science fields, as well as community programs.

Agenda:

Lecture and Discussion | James Forman Jr. | Locking Up Our Own: Crime and Punishment in Black America

Discussion | How Community Programs Address Race Bias and Race

Afternoon Lecture and Discussion | Kelsey M. Jones | Adolescence Incarcerated: Healing the Wounds of the School-to-Prison Pipeline

For full agenda, click here.

Speakers:

Paul Boxer | Associate Professor of Psychology, Co-Director of the Rutgers Center on Youth Violence and Juvenile Justice, Senior Fellow and Director of the Evidence-based Institute in the Rutgers School of Criminal Justice at Rutgers University–Newark

Marcia Brown | Vice Chancellor for External and Governmental Relations at Rutgers University-Newark

Esther Canty-Barnes | Clinical Professor of Law and Director of the Education and Health Law Clinic at Rutgers Law School

Laura Cohen | Distinguished Clinical Professor of Law, Justice Virginia Long Scholar, Director of the Criminal and Youth Justice Clinic at Rutgers Law School, and Co-Director of the Rutgers Center on Youth Violence and Juvenile Justice

Jacquelynn Duron | Assistant Professor at Rutgers School of Social Work

James Forman Jr. | Professor of Law at Yale Law School

Rachel Godsil | Professor of Law at Rutgers Law School, Director of Research and Co-Founder of the Perception Institute

Jasmine Harden | Newark Court Coordinator, Center for Court Innovation

Paul Hirschfield | Associate Professor of Sociology at Rutgers University in New Brunswick

Kelsey M. Jones | Post-doctoral Fellow in the Applied Psychology and Human Development Division at the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Education

Ken Karamichael | Associate Director of Cooperative Extension, Director of the Office of Continuing Professional Education at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, and Director of Rutgers T.E.E.M. Gateway

Andrea McCoy-Johnson | Lecturer at the Rutgers School of Criminal Justice

Dennis Porter | Founder and President of Prodigal Son's & Daughter's Prison Re-entry and Redirection Services

Byron Price | Professor of Public Administration at Medgar Evers College of the City University of New York

Luis Rivera | Associate Professor in the Department of Psychology at Rutgers University-Newark and Principal Investigator, the Rutgers Implicit Social Cognition (RISC) Lab

Alexander Shalom | Senior Staff Attorney at the American Civil Liberties Union of New Jersey

Michele Williers | Co-Founder and Chief Operating Officer of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Essex, Hudson & Union Counties

CLE Credit: NJ: 4.0 | NY: 4.0 | PA: 3.0

Registration Fees:

$100 for attorneys seeking CLE credit

$65 for public interest attorneys with promo code PUBLIC443

$30 for non-CLE participants with promo code NOCLE443

All fees increase by $10 after June 4

CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 4.0 hours of total CLE credit, and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 3.0 hours of total CLE credit. This program qualifies for the New York Diversity, Inclusion and Elimination of Bias requirement.

Continental breakfast and box lunch will be available for all attendees. If you would like a vegetarian lunch, please contact us prior to June 4.

For CLE credit, register at rutgerscle.com

For non-CLE registration, click here.