

FOURTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON YOUTH DEVELOPMENT AND JUVENILE JUSTICE

Thursday, June 6, 2019

9:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

McCarter & English Lecture Hall | Lower Level | Room 070
Rutgers Law School | Center for Law and Justice | 123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

The Fourth Annual Conference on Youth Development and Juvenile Justice will highlight the critical emerging issue of social media with respect to how contemporary adolescents organize their social activities and behavior. The "digital street" is the new gathering place, with smart phone technologies and social media applications virtually paving new paths for social interactions and in turn creating new opportunities for constructive engagements as well as problem behavior. At the same time, social media sites have hit the radar of law enforcement, and the legal and ethical issues surrounding social media surveillance pose interesting challenges to managing the "digital street" safely and effectively. All the while, youth who already have been arrested and detained still endure the difficult conditions of confinement in the juvenile justice and sometimes adult criminal justice systems. Join the Center on Youth Violence and Juvenile Justice at Rutgers-Newark for an important scholarly event where all of these issues will be on the table.

Agenda and Speakers:

Welcome Addresses | Robert Johnson, MD, FAAP, Dean, Rutgers New Jersey Medical School and Interim Dean, Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School; Paul Boxer, Ph.D., Co-director, Rutgers-Newark Center on Youth Violence and Juvenile Justice; David Lopez, Co-dean, Rutgers Law School

Lecture and Discussion | How the "Digital Street" Changes Youth Violence and Juvenile Justice | Jeffrey Lane Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Communication, Rutgers School of Communication and Information

Lecture and Discussion | Could Your Instagram Land You in Jail? How Police Use Social Media for Surveillance and Monitoring | Rachel Levinson-Waldman, Esq., Senior Counsel, Liberty and National Security Program, Brennan Center for Justice

Discussion | Some People Understand Differently: A Journey | Eric Campbell, Executive Director and Creator of SPUD Inc., Music Producer, and Songwriter

Panel Discussion | Combatting Juvenile Life without Parole in New Jersey | Alexander Shalom, ACLU-NJ; Tyler Dougherty, NJ Office of the Public Defender; Eric Campbell, Executive Director and Creator of SPUD Inc.

For full agenda, click here.

Registration Fees:

$120 for attorneys seeking CLE credit

$80 for public interest attorneys with promo code PUBLIC635

$45 for non-CLE participants with promo code NOCLE635

All fees increase by $10 for walk-ins

CLE Credit: NJ: 4.0 | NY: 4.0 | PA: 3.0

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 4.0 hours of total CLE credit.

Continental breakfast and box lunch will be available for all attendees. Vegetarian options will be available.

For CLE credit, register at rutgerscle.com

For non-CLE registration, click here.