Co-sponsored by:
Eagleton Institute of Politics, The Fund for New Jersey, Rutgers Institute for Professional Education

This one-day conference will convene decision-makers, academics, and the community to address the intersections of law and politics at the heart of legislative redistricting, the 2020 U.S. Census, and related election reforms. The aim of the conference is to increase awareness about the importance of the Census and redistricting process, and to explore issues related to the public interest, including reforms that might benefit the American political system. Topics include:

- Legislative Redistricting
- Litigation Approaches and Effective Practices
- 2020 U.S. Census
- Mapping Technology
- National and State Election Reforms
- Public Education and Mobilization
