

ADVANCING DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Wednesday, November 3, 2021

6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. EST

---

It is important for the legal profession to be diverse and inclusive to adequately represent the many communities that form our society. Join our webinar as three DEI Professionals who have worked for years to advance diversity and inclusion in the legal profession, discuss this slowly progressing topic.

Topics include:

- Trends regarding under-represented groups in the profession
- The success of DEI initiatives in law firms
- The success of DEI initiatives in corporations
- The aftermath of our nation's racial reckoning in 2020
- Discussion of Rule 8.4 (g)
- Questions from the Audience

Other Jurisdictions:

Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting

For each accredited webinar or teleconference, complete an online attendance form and evaluation to confirm your attendance and obtain your certificates. The attendance form and evaluation will either be provided on-screen at the end of a webinar and/or shortly after a webinar or teleconference via email.

You must view the entire program in order to receive CLE credit. During the program, codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance for a certificate of attendance.

Rutgers Law School will issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.

Format: Alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission (webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).
