

THE RAGE OF INNOCENCE: HOW AMERICA CRIMINALIZES BLACK YOUTH

Wednesday, November 10, 2021

4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Drawing on twenty-five years of experience representing Black youth in Washington, D.C.'s juvenile courts, Kristin Henning confronts America's irrational, manufactured fears of these young people and makes a powerfully compelling case that the crisis in racist American policing begins with its relationship to Black children. Professor Henning will be joined in conversation with business creative and philanthropist Eric Campbell and Karen Thompson, Senior Staff Attorney at the ACLU of New Jersey.

Co-sponsored by Rutgers Center on Criminal Justice, Youth Rights, and Race, Rutgers Institute for Professional Education, and the Northeast Juvenile Defender Center

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey and Pennsylvania continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 2.0 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 2.0 qualify as hours of credit for diversity, inclusion, and elimination of bias.

NY CLE Information: This program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction Policy. This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 2.0 credit hours (based on a 50-minute hour). Of these, 2.0 credit hours can be applied toward either Professional Practice or Diversity, Inclusion, and Elimination of Bias. Duplicate credit for the same hour of instruction is not permitted; an election must be made by the attendee, and each hour may be counted as satisfying only one category of instruction.

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.5 hours CLE credit hours, including 1.5 ethics credits (based on a 60-minute hour).

Other Jurisdictions:

Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting:

During the program, codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance. An attendance form and evaluation will be provided during the webinar.

New York attorneys must view the entire program in order to receive CLE credit.

Rutgers Law School will issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York, and report Pennsylvania attorney credits within 30 days of the program.

Format: Alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission (webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).
