

The C. Willard Heckel Inn of Court and Rutgers Institute for Professional Education at Rutgers Law School present:

IMMIGRATION CRIMINAL CROSSOVER: AVOIDING UNFORESEEN PITFALLS

Wednesday, December 1, 2021
5:30 p.m. – 7:40 p.m.

Zoom Webinar

Hear from "crimmigration" experts on the intersection of criminal and immigration law and the potential collateral consequences for non-U.S. citizen criminal defendants. Learn to identify the relevant issues and avoid the many unforeseen pitfalls. This is helpful information to know, whether you are defense counsel, prosecution, or the court.

Other Jurisdictions:

Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting

For each accredited webinar or teleconference, please complete the provided online attendance form and evaluation to confirm your attendance and obtain your certificates. The attendance form and evaluation will either be provided on-screen at the end of a webinar and/or shortly after a webinar or teleconference via email.

You must view the entire program to receive CLE credit. During the program, several codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance for a certificate.

Rutgers Law School will submit attendance to Pennsylvania, and issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.
