VOTING RIGHTS REFORM:
THE 26TH AMENDMENT, YOUTH POWER, LAWMAKING, AND THE POTENTIAL FOR A THIRD RECONSTRUCTION
PART TWO OF THREE – ZOOM WEBINAR

Wednesday April 6, 2022 | 12:15 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Time)

The 2022 Symposium of the Rutgers University Law Review will explore the legislative history of the Twenty-Sixth Amendment, the appropriate standards of review that courts should use when reviewing challenges to youth voting restrictions, and a data-driven perspective on the youth vote and the specific voting mechanisms that empower the youth vote.

This is part two of a three-part series that will host scholars of law and legal ethics, election data science, social sciences, and the humanities; current and former lawmakers; legal practitioners; and current and former youth organizers to discuss election law reform.

VOTING RIGHTS REFORM:
THE 26TH AMENDMENT, LAWMAKING, AND STATE-LEVEL ADVOCACY
PART TWO OF THREE – ZOOM WEBINAR

Wednesday April 6, 2022 | 12:15 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. (Eastern Time)

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey and Pennsylvania continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 2.0 hours of total CLE credit.

NY CLE Information: This program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction Policy. This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 2.0 credit hours. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit.

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.5 hours of substantive law, practice, and procedure CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions:
Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting

During the program, several codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance for a certificate.

A link to the attendance form and evaluation will be provided at the end of a webinar or upon request by email. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must complete the form and provide the attendance verification codes.

Rutgers Law School will submit attendance to Pennsylvania, and issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.

Format: Zoom webinar, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission (webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).

Cancellation Policy
Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $10 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least two hours before the program.
