

From Contract to Closing: A Guide to Residential Real Estate Transactions

Wednesday June 15, 2022

5:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. (Eastern Time)

This program will focus on the intricacies of residential real estate transactions in New Jersey. It will include such topics as negotiating the contract of sale and rider, reviewing the title commitment and survey, and creating a checklist for closing. Understanding the responsibilities and role of the attorney in contrast to the title agent, real estate broker, and lender. Discussing important and critical issues leading up to the closing to ensure a smooth closing.

Other Jurisdictions

Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting

During the program, several codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance for a certificate.

A link to the attendance form and evaluation will be provided at the end of a webinar or upon request by email. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must complete the form and provide the attendance verification codes.

Rutgers Law School will submit attendance to Pennsylvania, and issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.

Format: Zoom webinar, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission (webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).
