

MAINTAINING ATTORNEY TRUST AND BUSINESS ACCOUNTS

Tuesday, November 1, 2022 | 6:00 p.m. - 8:10 p.m. EST

Rutgers Law School - Zoom

This program will cover the key requirements of the New Jersey Court Rules and the Rules of Professional Conduct with respect to handling client funds, maintaining attorney trust, business and fiduciary accounts and the required recordkeeping. This will be done by providing a first-hand view of the audit process, red flags and how to avoid issues during an audit.

Topics include:

- The recordkeeping requirements as per NJ Court Rule 1:21-6 and RPC 1.15
- Random audit procedures and findings
- Common recordkeeping problems
- Disciplinary audit procedures and findings
- Trust Overdraft Program
- Overview of disciplinary process

Format:

Alternative, verifiable, live webinar/webconference with synchronous interactivity. Zoom webinar link and materials to be emailed to registrants.

Faculty:

Alison Picione, Chief of Investigations, Office of Attorney Ethics
Jason Saunders, First Assistant Ethics Counsel

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey and Pennsylvania continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 2.5 hours of total CLE credit including 1.2 ethics and 1.3 credits in Trust and Business Accounting.

NY CLE Information: This program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction Policy. This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 2.5 credit hours (based on a 50-minute hour). Of these, 2.5 credit hours can be applied toward the Ethics and Professionalism requirement. Duplicate credit for the same hour of instruction is not permitted; an election must be made by the attendee, and each hour may be counted as satisfying only one category of instruction.

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 2.0 CLE credit hours including 2.0 ethics credits (based on a 60-minute hour).

Other Jurisdictions:

Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting

For each accredited webinar or teleconference, complete an online attendance form and evaluation to confirm your attendance and obtain your certificates. The attendance form and evaluation will either be provided on-screen at the end of a webinar and/or shortly after a webinar or teleconference via email.

You must view the entire program in order to receive CLE credit. During the program, codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance for a certificate of attendance.

Rutgers Law School will issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.

Format: Alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission (webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).
