New Jersey Housing Discrimination and Protection Laws

Thursday, October 20, 2022

4:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Zoom webinar and in-person

Rutgers Law School, Center for Law and Justice, 123 Washington Street, Room 025, Newark, NJ

All New Jersey residents and those seeking housing have the right to an experience that is free from discrimination. This program will provide a greater understanding of the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination in Housing, and the Fair Chance in Housing Act (FCHA). Participants will learn about the protections under these laws and what steps can be taken when an act of discrimination or harassment occurs.

Co-sponsored by Rutgers Housing Justice and Tenant Solidarity Clinic, the Center for Gender, Sexuality, Law and Policy, and the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey and Pennsylvania continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.7 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 1.7 qualify as hours of credit for diversity, inclusion, and elimination of bias.

NY CLE Information: This program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction Policy. This transitional and non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 1.5 credit hours (based on a 50-minute hour), of which an aggregate of 1.5 credit hours can be applied toward the Areas of Professional Practice requirement or the Diversity, Inclusion, and Elimination of Bias requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit (no partial credit allowed).

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.0 hours CLE credit hours, including 1.0 ethics credits (based on a 60-minute hour).

Other Jurisdictions

Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting

During the program, codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, which you will need to confirm your attendance. Only webinar participants are eligible for CLE credit.

A link to an attendance and evaluation form will be provided at the end of a webinar or upon request by email. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must complete the form with the codes, and have paid the CLE fee.

Rutgers Law School will submit attendance to Pennsylvania, and issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.

Format

Live (in-person) or Zoom webinar (alternative, verifiable, live, simultaneous transmission webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).

Cancellation Policy

Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $10 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least two hours before the program.

Financial Hardship Policy

We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. When possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver, or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
