12th Annual ETHICS-Fest: Analyzing Common Ethical Dilemmas

Friday, December 16, 2022 | 9:00 a.m. – 11:10 a.m.

Zoom Webinar

Close out the CLE year with this lively, fast-paced ethics program in which participants discuss common, but challenging, ethical dilemmas faced by attorneys. Hypotheticals modeled on common practice situations will provide the structure for this highly interactive program for seasoned and new attorneys alike.

What did your colleagues say about the 11th Annual ETHICS-Fest?

- Enlightening!
- Excellent instruction. I'll do it again!
- The session was thought-provoking and well done.
- Great job keeping this topic engaging and asking typically impossible ethics questions!
- The discussion was very high level; thought provoking and keyed in on current scenarios in the field.

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey and Pennsylvania continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 2.5 hours of total CLE credit. Of those, 2.5 qualify as hours of credit for ethics/professionalism.

NY CLE Information: This program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction Policy. This transitional and non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 2.5 credit hours, of which 2.5 credit hours can be applied toward the Ethics and Professionalism requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit (no partial credit allowed).

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 2.5 hours of ethics, professionalism, or substance abuse CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting: During the program, several codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance for a certificate.

A link to the attendance form and evaluation will be provided at the end of a webinar or upon request by email. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must complete the form and provide the attendance verification codes.

Rutgers Law School will submit attendance to Pennsylvania, and issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.

Format: Zoom webinar, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission (webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $10 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least two hours before the program.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. When possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
