Rutgers Law School | 217 North Fifth Street | Camden, NJ 08102

The legal landscape concerning women’s rights in the United States has shifted dramatically in 2022, which also happens to be the 50th anniversary of Title IX, a federal statute that was initially enacted to protect women from sex discrimination within educational programs. Join a panel of practitioners and reproductive rights scholar, Rutgers Law School Co-Dean Kimberly Mutcherson, for a discussion that will focus on the new proposed Title IX regulations regarding institutions’ obligations to respond appropriately and effectively to complaints of sex discrimination, Title IX’s protection of pregnant students and the impact of the Dobbs decision on women students and institutions that are responsible for providing services to them.

Speakers:

Kimberly Mutcherson, Co-Dean and Professor of Law, Rutgers Law School

Beth Gellman-Beer, U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights – Philadelphia

Patricia Hamill, Conrad O’Brien

Nancy Potter, Potter Law

Moderator: Rhasheda Douglas, Assistant Dean, Minority Student Program, Rutgers Law School

CLE credit: NJ: 1.8 DIEB credit | NY: 1.5 DIEB credit | PA: 1.5 ethics

Registration Fee: $40 or if no CLE free with promo code NOCLE916

CLE INFORMATION

Rutgers Law School is an approved New Jersey and Pennsylvania continuing legal education provider. In addition, this program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction policy.

NJ CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education of the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.8 hours of total CLE credit. Of these, 1.8 qualify as hours of credit for diversity, inclusion, and elimination of bias.

NY CLE Information: This program qualifies for New York CLE credit pursuant to the Approved Jurisdiction Policy. This non-transitional continuing legal education program qualifies for a maximum of 1.5 credit hours, of which 1.5 credit hours can be applied toward the diversity, inclusion, and elimination of bias requirement. New York attorneys must view the entire program to receive CLE credit.

PA CLE Information: This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 1.5 hours of ethics, professionalism, or substance abuse CLE credit.

Other Jurisdictions: Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting: During the program, several codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance for a certificate.

A link to the attendance form and evaluation will be provided at the end of a webinar or upon request by email. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must complete the form and provide the attendance verification codes.

Rutgers Law School will submit attendance to Pennsylvania, and issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.

Format: Faculty in room with participants.

Cancellation Policy: Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $5 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least two hours before the program.

Financial Hardship Policy: We are strongly committed to professional development and seek to make our programs affordable to attorneys. When possible, we will provide reduced tuition, tuition waiver or scholarship to attorneys who demonstrate financial hardship. Requests should be made prior to the program date by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu.
