

Representing People with Diminished Capacity

Thursday, March 30, 2023

6:00 p.m. – 8:35 p.m. (EDT)

Zoom Webinar

---

The program will explore the ethical challenges involved in representing people with diminished capacity resulting from an intellectual disability, mental illness or advancing age. Panelists will also present an overview of the types of matters (civil only) in which these issues generally arise. The panel will also include several participants who will look at the topic from the perspective of a parent or sibling of a person with a disability. Among the participants will be the Hon. Helen E. Hoens, Assoc. Justice of the New Jersey Supreme Court (ret.).

Other Jurisdictions:

Rutgers Law School does not seek direct accreditation of live programs or webinars in other states. However, some states allow attorneys to earn credit through reciprocity or self-submission. Attorneys must research CLE rules and request accreditation on their own from their respective state/jurisdiction. Rutgers Law School will provide proof of attendance.

Attendance Reporting

During the program, several codes will appear at random intervals. Please keep track of these codes, as you will need them to confirm your attendance for a certificate.

A link to the attendance form and evaluation will be provided at the end of a webinar or upon request by email. If you are seeking CLE credit, you must complete the form and provide the attendance verification codes.

Rutgers Law School will submit attendance to Pennsylvania, and issue certificates of attendance for New Jersey and New York within 30 days of the program.

Format: Zoom webinar, alternative, verifiable, live simultaneous transmission (webinar/webconference) with synchronous interactivity (questions allowed during program).

Cancellation Policy

Cancellation notices must be received by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least 24 hours before the program to qualify for a refund, less a $10 administrative fee, or a credit toward another program within a year. There are no refunds after this time except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the director or program coordinators. Substitutions are accepted by email to ipe@law.rutgers.edu at least two hours before the program.
